

Sustainability

INTRODUZIONE ALLA LCA/FOOTPRINT AMBIENTALI - FOCUS SULLE CARBON

Course on request

Course description

INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL LCA/FOOTPRINTS - FOCUS ON CARBON

Premise

The CSQA Training Center offers a series of insights dedicated to environmental issues with the aim of providing the tools for understanding the issues related to Sustainable Development by focusing attention on "environmental sustainability". Introduction to the LCA (Life Cycle Assessment) tool as an assessment method at the basis of all footprints with an in-depth look at the carbon footprint

Recipients

Administrators, Environmental Policies and Sustainability-related Issues Officers, Communications and Marketing Officers, Consortia and Cooperatives

Plan

Topics covered:

Sustainability and sustainable development:

from the Brundtland report to environmental sustainability: the stages that led the international community to the definition of the 2030 Agenda - The PA strategy in the process of change

The LCA method:

outline of the methodology – the principles of the Life Cycle Assessment approach

The Footprint Family:

Classification and classification: the reference standards

A Focus on Carbon:

Carbon Footprint and Carbon Neutral - How to certify the carbon footprint, applicable international legislation.
Achieving carbon neutrality stages and methods

Certificates/Attestations issued

Participants will be issued a certificate of participation
