

CYBERSECURITY, eIDAS, NIS2

FORMAZIONE PROFESSIONALE EIDAS: LEAD AUDITOR

Course on request

Course description

Premise:

The eIDAS (electronic IDentification Authentication and Signature) Regulation - EU Regulation No. 910/2014 on digital identity - aims to provide a regulatory basis at community level for trust services and electronic identification means of member states.

The eIDAS regulation provides a common regulatory basis for secure electronic interactions between citizens, businesses and public administrations and increases the security and effectiveness of electronic services and e-business and e-commerce transactions in the European Union.

Recipients:

The course is preparatory to the training and qualification of professional figures capable of dealing with second and third party audits with method and ability according to EU Regulation No. 910/2014 - eIDAS.

Goals:

The course aims to:

- Provide an overview of the regulatory framework regarding Trust Service providers;
- Provide an overview of trust services;
- Provide examples of audit techniques;
- Provide a detail of the latest updates in the eIDAS field.

Content:

- Conducting the audit
 - Non-Conformities and Corrective Actions
 - Exercises on specific aspects of trust services
 - Regulatory updates at European and national level
-

Prerequisites

- Knowledge of the English language
 - Passing the previous modules (basic and intermediate)
-

Certificates/Attestations issued

Certificate of Participation and Certificate of Qualification only upon passing the final exam.
